Book Discussion

Tuesday June 21st at 6:30 pm

The Little Paris Bookshop by Nina George
(led by Missy Hayes)

Monsieur Perdu calls himself a literary apothecary. From his floating bookstore in a barge on the Seine, he prescribes novels for the hardships of life. Using his intuitive feel for the exact book a reader needs, Perdu mends broken hearts and souls. The only person he can't seem to heal through literature is himself; he's still haunted by heartbreak after his great love disappeared.

Artist of the Month: Sandra Dallaire

Sandra and her husband Pete have lived in Lebanon for over thirty years. Sandra was the owner of the Promise Land Gift Shop located on the Lebanon Green until her retirement twelve years ago. With an abundance of time available she became interested in the art of Photography. The excitement of capturing the beauty of nature has become an ever growing joy. She never leaves home without her camera because the next great photo could be just around the corner.

New at the Library

The library now has the fully restored 25th anniversary edition of Ken Burns' award winning documentary, The Civil War, a six DVD set donated in memory of Harold Geer.

First Tuesday Films Free popcorn and comfy seats at all films!

Lady in the Van (2015): Tuesday June 7th at 2:00 PM

Starring Maggie Smith. This film tells the true story of the relationship between Alan Bennett and the singular Miss Shepherd, a woman of uncertain origins who "temporarily" parked her van in Bennett's driveway and proceeded to live there for fifteen years.

The Finest Hours (2016): Tuesday July 5 at 2:00 PM

Starring Chris Pine, Casey Affleck and Ben Foster. Based on the extraordinary true story of the greatest small boat rescue in Coast Guard history, The Finest Hours is a tale of courage, loyalty and honor in the face of overwhelming odds. When a massive storm strikes off the coast of Cape Cod, it rips a T-2 oil tanker in half, trapping more than 30 sailors on its rapidly sinking stern.
