December 2018 Programs at JTL

Hot Chicks with Sticks Mondays, Dec. 3 and 17 at 6:30 pm. Like to knit or crochet? All are welcome to join this friendly group.

First Tuesday Film - To Kill a Mockingbird Dec. 4 at 2:00 pm. Told through the eyes of Scout, a feisty six year old tomboy, To Kill a Mockingbird carries us on an odyssey through the fires of prejudice and injustice in 1932 Alabama. Free popcorn and comfortable seats!

Little Women Tea & Talk Tuesday, Dec. 4 at 6:00 pm. Louisa May Alcott's book Little Women has never been out of publication since it was first published in 1868. Over time it has been made into a movie six times – twice as a silent film and four times with sound. It has also been produced as a play and a musical. Linda Wallace will lead a discussion about how closely the novel followed Louisa May Alcott's own life and why it still resonates with many women today. A tea with sweets and savories will also be enjoyed.

Yoga with Karen Thursday, Dec. 6 at 2:00 pm. Join Karen Woodmansee in this Kripalu yoga practice based on the principles of loving-kindness and awareness. All experience levels are welcome. Please bring a yoga mat or a towel.

Yoga and Meditation Monday, Dec. 10 at 6:30 pm. Join Gajinder Kaur for a free Kundalini yoga and meditation practice in our community room.

Author event: Lisa C. Taylor Tuesday, Dec. 11 at 6:30 pm. Lisa C. Taylor will read from her new short story collection, Impossibly Small Spaces, "a collection that seamlessly matches form with content, Lisa C. Taylor gifts the reader with cut-glass explorations of the diminishing spaces and of the freedoms –illusory, fleeting, elusive–so craved by a heartbreakingly real cast of characters." -Alan McMonagle.

Embracing the Journey of Autism Tuesday, Dec. 11 at 6:30 pm. This group is open to parents, caregivers, or anyone whose life has been touched by autism. Sharing of experiences will be encouraged as every unique story can offer inspiration and hope to others.

Wednesday Movie - The Man Who Invented Christmas Dec. 12 at 1:00 pm. Charles Dickens relies on real-life inspiration and his vivid imagination to bring characters to life in "A Christmas Carol," forever changing the holiday season into the celebration known today. (Rated PG)

Friends of JTL Holiday Party & Meeting Wednesday, Dec. 12 at 6:00 pm. The Friends holiday party will be held at the Community Center. All are invited to bring something to the potluck meal, and if so inclined, bring a wrapped book to the Yankee gift swap. Join us for a short business meeting and a fun gathering thereafter.

Adult and Family Game Night - Ticket to Ride Thursday, Dec. 13 at 6:00 pm. Come play this tabletop cross-country train adventure.

Lyman Memorial High School Choir Saturday, Dec. 15 at 11:00 am. The Lyman Memorial High School Choir and Band will be singing and playing a selection of carols to bring us into the holiday spirit. Refreshments will be served.

Book Discussion Tuesday, Dec. 18 at 6:30 pm. Uncommon Type: Some Stories by Tom Hanks. Join us to discuss this collection of short stories. All readers welcome. Multiple copies available.

First Tuesday Film - Won't You Be My Neighbor? Jan. 8 at 2:00 pm. A documentary about Fred Rogers and how he influenced America.
