Dear Patrons,

Visit the library every week! We have new books all the time for adults, teens, and kids. Coming to the library is low risk and you can even pick your books up at the window. Kids going to hybrid school have more time to read deeply and explore other interests. Bring them to the library and they will become readers.

Join us for Trivia Tuesdays online, we have two teams that are a lot of fun but we could use more competition.

Best wishes,

Matt Earls
Library Director

SCARECROW CONTEST

The Jonathan Trumbull Library invites everyone to participate in a scarecrow contest.

Do you want to build a scarecrow? Come on, let's go and play!

Prizes will be awarded for the funniest, most creative, prettiest, and the people's choice. There is also a prize for the best kid scarecrow (made with minimal adult help).

Scarecrows should be sturdy enough to withstand the harsh conditions of a Lebanon fall. Scarecrows and props must fit into a 4x4 foot area. You are welcome to visit your scarecrow and keep it in good condition.

This is a family event so scarecrows should not be gory or violent.

Contestants will place their scarecrows on the green in one of the assigned spaces during the Columbus day weekend with a week of public online voting.

Set up your scarecrows outside of the library on Saturday, October 10, 2020.
